

26 June, 1868?

My Dear Garrison,

78

I presume you have by this time received the Evening Post in exchange. One of the editors promised me it should be sent.
I will not forget your photograph, but I have not yet found time to look after it.

Nor will I forget my promise to get for you, if possible,
"The Rebellion Record."

If I can get a free pass on the railroad and steamer hence to Boston, I think I shall go to Traningham with you on the morning of the 4th, going up to Boston from Providence ~~to Boston~~ the previous night. But if I fail of getting a free ticket, I think I shall only go to Providence.

Yours, faithfully,
A. Johnson.

G. J. N. Y. June 26, 1862.
